2005 SPE PRESIDENT

Giovanni Paccaloni, Vice President Technology Planning and R&D, Eni S.p.A. E&P Div.

BACKGROUND

SPE is a worldwide, individual-member organization serving professional managers, engineers and scientists in the E&P segments of the oil and gas industry.

MISSION

To provide the means for collection, dissemination and exchange of technical information concerning the developments of oil and gas resources, subsurface fluid flow, and production of other materials through wellbores for the public benefit; and to provide opportunities through its programs for interested (and qualified) individuals to maintain and upgrade their individual technical competence in the aforementioned areas for the public benefit.

MAJOR TECHNICAL DISCIPLINES

Upstream oil and gas operations, including Drilling and Completions; Facilities and Construction; Health, Safety and Environment; Management and Information; Production and Operations; and Reservoir Description and Dynamics.

MEMBERSHIP

More than 60,000 members participate in 152 sections in 58 countries and 109 student chapters in 39 countries. SPE's membership represents more than 100 countries.

RESOURCES

SPE.org: The SPE Web site provides worldwide connection to many of SPE's resources, including an industry-specific search engine, SPE e-mail, the SPE eLibrary, more than 25 Technical Interest Groups, Distance Learning courses, SPE Store, Career Center, Events, Membership and Publications. SPE.org is "Where Knowledge Powers the E&P Industry."

SPE Periodicals: Journal of Petroleum Technology, SPE Drilling & Completion, SPE Journal, SPE Production & Facilities, and SPE Reservoir Evaluation & Engineering.

SPE Technical Resources: Monograph Series, Petroleum Engineering Handbook, Reports, Reprint Series, Short Courses, SPE eLibrary, Standards, Surveys, Textbook Series and Videotape Courses.

CONFERENCES AND EXHIBITIONS

SPE sponsors more than 60 conferences, exhibitions, forums and workshops each year. The technical programs are presented and created entirely by SPE members and industry professionals. All papers are selected by SPE committees to ensure the highest quality. For a complete listing of SPE events and dates, send an e-mail request to service@spe.org or visit www.spe.org.

GOVERNING BODY

Board of Directors: Four officers, three At-Large Directors, 14 Regional Directors, six Technical Directors. For a complete listing, visit www.spe.org.
