

Saudi Aramco.

Saudi Aramco is celebrating its 75th year as a reliable supplier of energy to the world. With 260 billion barrels of proven oil reserves and major refining and natural gas assets, Saudi Aramco stands committed to providing a dependable supply of petroleum to the international community. As a premier developer and user of technology, Saudi Aramco is dedicated to collaboration in the mutual pursuit of ensuring global energy needs are met for generations to come.